

Memphis Flyer

Breakfast Burger at Majestic Grille

by Michael Hughes

Wednesday October 20, 2011

The Majestic Grille has given me another reason to love brunch. The first is their Majestic Mimosa, which is a bottle of bubbles and a carafe of orange juice.

The second reason is the Breakfast Burger — fried egg, crispy bacon, melted cheese, and a gloriously medium burger. Heavenly. There's crunch, velvety smoothness, and richness. Be sure to ask your server to have the kitchen make the yolk runny. The silky gelatinous texture of the golden yolk is paramount to the success of this burger.

Go get this now.

Photo by Justin Fox Burks